

ANTHONY PARISI COLLECTION

The illustrations of Anthony Parisi

Born and raised in New Rochelle, NY, Anthony is a graduate of Parsons School of design where he received his BFA in illustration. Anthony likes to think of himself as a “face specialist”, but also has a knack for stylizing the human form to give one dimensional figures the illusion of fluidity and motion. Anthony’s love of illustration, music, history and historic musical instruments (he is a self proclaimed guitar junkie) adds to the historic authenticity of every illustration that he creates. Aside from illustrating, Anthony also enjoys writing and recording original music in his home recording studio and performing live. He also produces and stars in his Internet radio show; “The Flying Parisi Brothers Show” with his brother Dave. When not creating Beatle illustrations or creating music, Anthony can be found drawing caricatures of poor unsuspecting passers by while out with friends. Anthony currently lives in Woodbury, NJ with his wife Mary & their daughters Marisa, also known as “The Amazing Beatle Baby” and Melody.
